

Kunapipi Code of Conduct

- * A Hut Captain will be assigned by the board and will act as the board representative for the duration of their stay in the lodge. All members and guests are required to comply with any instructions from the Hut Captain.
- * Members and guests shall acquaint themselves with the fire safety procedures and comply immediately with fire alarms and instructions from the assigned Hut Captain.
- * Members and guests shall behave appropriately and be respectful of other members and guests staying in the lodge.
- * Only the members and guests identified in an accepted booking are permitted to stay in the lodge overnight.
- * Members and guests are responsible for the cleaning of all their assigned bedrooms, en-suites and the common areas before departing the lodge at the conclusion of their stay.
- * Members and guests are required to take with them all foodstuffs that they have brought into the lodge. No food of any kind (apart from those items provided by the lodge) is to be left in the lodge cupboards, fridges or freezer.
- * Members and guests found to be in violation of any of the above points will be the subject of a report to the board and at risk of incurring further fees, penalties or cancellation of membership.
